at the RFA Lakeside Theater and other Rangeley locations

Make great music and great friends this summer!
For ages 8-18

Students will enjoy private lesson time as well as ensemble lessons and music-making.

Students enjoy lakeside lunch just a stroll from the theater.

All student ability levels are served. Students are asked to submit a 1 minute video of performance on their instrument to aid in curriculum planning.

play music with others, write music and advance their individual skills.

Each day will include group singing as well as a noontime outdoor recreational period.

On Friday, campers will showcase all that they have learned in a performance for family and friends.

Group singing is a part of each day, and ensembles perform at the Finale Recital.
